MISSOULA--

The public is invited to participate in a backpack trip down the Olympic Peninsula of the Washington Coast Sept. 15-21.

The trip, which is sponsored by the University of Montana campus recreation department, will include a hike of about 21 miles and several day trips off the trail. Jim Ball, director of the department, said that both the regular hike and the day trips will not be strenuous.

Participants should bring their own food and equipment and rain gear. A fee of $55 pays for transportation.

Preregistration for the trip is necessary because there will be planning meetings before the trip. Registration is at the Women's Center on campus, room 109.
